

Henrik Geyer

AI consultant, software entrepreneur and author. I talk with founders and CEOs of technology companies – about what really drives them.

IN SHORT

- ✓ AI consultant and software entrepreneur (bisnet.ai), Berlin.
- ✓ Author of "The 20 Most Important AI Applications for Businesses 2026".
- ✓ I run thirty applications of my own on one server – I know what you are talking about.
- ✓ YouTube channel on technology, philosophy and consciousness.

“ I want to know how you decide – not what your press kit says. No interrogation, no talk show: a curious conversation between people who build things themselves.

WHAT I WANT TO TALK ABOUT

- How AI is changing your product and your team right now
- Build or buy – what you develop yourself and why
- The decision you would make differently today
- What your customers really buy – and what they don't
- Germany as a location: what helps, what holds back
- Thinking, consciousness, machines – if you like

YOUR BENEFITS AS A GUEST

- ✓ Publication on YouTube and henrik-geyer.com.
- ✓ Links to your website and LinkedIn profile.
- ✓ The video for your own use.
- ✓ Questions in advance, approval before publication.
- ✓ A conversation between people who build things – not a marketing interview.

HOW IT WORKS

- ✓ 45–60 minutes.
- ✓ Via video – or on site at your place in and around Berlin.
- ✓ Topics agreed in advance, no trick questions.
- ✓ I take care of editing and publishing.

Sounds interesting?

Drop me a line – a ten-minute call is enough to agree on topic and timing.
